Books and Audiovisual

Everything Changes: The Insider's Guide to Cancer in Your 20s and 30s / Kairol Rosenthal. 6.4.5 2009

The author, a young adult cancer survivor, spoke with twenty-five other young adult cancer survivors to find out how they coped with the cancer experience. The issues she discusses are many, including dating and sex, employment and careers, fertility and adoption and dealing with family and friends.

Wrong Way To Hope: An Inspiring Story of Young Adults and Cancer / Mike Lang, Aaron Bryant. 6.4.2 2010 DVD

This inspirational group of young adult survivors share their personal stories as they embark on a journey of a lifetime down one of the most remote rivers in North America. Applying the lessons they learned from their cancer struggle, together they battle a completely new set of trials on the river. Beautifully filmed, this is a rare insight into the lives of one of Canada's most under-served and unrecognized populations.

This Should Not Be Happening: Young Adults With Cancer / Anne Katz. 6.4.0 2014

This is a straight-talking book from one of the best authors around. Based on current research, the author's own clinical expertise and interviews with over a dozen young adult cancer survivors, this book confronts the challenges of cancer head-on with frank, pragmatic advice and inspiration on issues unique to young adults dealing with life-changing illness.

Planet Cancer: The Frequently Bizarre Yet Always Informative Experiences and Thoughts of Your Fellow Natives / Heidi Schultz Adams and Christopher Schultz. 6.4.7 2010

Planet Cancer is an honest, down-to-earth guide to living in the new world of a cancer, from diagnosis to post-treatment. Aimed at young adults between 15 and 40, the book is based on the popular Planet Cancer website that has been helping young people since 2001.

Let's Talk About It: Inspiring Stories From Young Adult Cancer Survivors / Darren Neuberger.
6.4.6 2010

If you are a young adult who has been touched by cancer, then this book is for you. In this collection you will find humour, strength, courage and wisdom in personal stories written by young adult cancer survivors. You will find inspiration in our journey and understand why it is important that we talk about living with and overcoming this disease.
